ESSAY:

FIRST TIME APPLICANTS: 200- 300 words discussing 1 of the 2 the subjects below. Please be thorough and answer all of the questions in detail.

- How would you describe an effective leader? What qualities of leadership, and being a good team member do YOU possess? What do you still need work on in order to become a better leader?

OR

- How do the arts make the world a better place to live for everyone? Provide 2 or more examples of how this is being done.

RETURNING TROUPE MEMBERS: 200- 300 words discussing the subject below.

How has joining GLT improved your over-all confidence? How might joining GLT help improve your self-esteem? What are some things you'd like to improve on and learn more about this summer?

PREPARED CREATIVE PIECE:

FIRST TIME APPLICANTS: Please bring something to share with us that you have created/ prepared such as a piece of artwork, a poem, a story, a monologue or scene from a play, a song you have written, or a dance you have created or learned. After you present, we will ask you questions about what your piece means to you.

RETURNING TROUPE MEMBERS: You will share a creative piece as described above. Your presentation should reflect some of the skills you have learned with us. Also, be prepared to speak about the mission of Girlstories Leadership Theatre.

WELCOME SESSION/INTERVIEW QUESTIONS:

As part of the WELCOME SESSION process, you will be asked some questions to respond to aloud. Questions you may be asked include:

- What interests you about the Girlstories Leadership Theatre?
- What qualities do you have that will help you get along well in this group?
- How will you help fellow troupe members to hang in there during the hard work and repetition of rehearsal? What helps YOU during hard work like this?
- Describe an experience you have had with taking a leadership role, either formally or informally.
- How do you feel about being a teacher/mentor?
- What words of advice do you have for younger girls? (Is there something you wish someone had told you?)
- We strive for diversity in our troupe. How do you get along with a variety of people?

WE LOOK FORWARD TO MEETING/SEEING YOU!!
